PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation | Automotive | Business Litigation | Class & Collective Action | Trade Secrets & Non-Compete Litigation
| Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) | Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights | Investigations & Special Projects | Commercial Finance

Jason McCarter is an experienced business litigator who represents business enterprises in complex commercial disputes and regulatory investigations. Jason is the Chair of the firm's Automotive practice and is often called upon to counsel and advocate for clients facing contract, business tort, secured lending, creditors' rights and licensing issues.

Jason practices in state and federal courts and alternative dispute resolution forums around the country. For example, he has prevented class certification in an automotive false advertising case seeking $1 billion in damages, won summary judgment and appeal in a nine-figure network antitrust and contract dispute for a national cable provider, prevailed at trial in the arbitration of a multimillion dollar real estate purchase option for a craft brewer, and obtained an eight-figure judgment, along with recovery of all stolen intellectual property, in a web-based trade secrets dispute.

Jason is a frequent speaker and writer on financial, automotive and regulatory issues.

EXPERIENCE

- Successfully prosecuted and defended numerous complex lawsuits and ADR proceedings, including breach of contract, trade secrets, antitrust, RICO, class actions, and unfair competition claims.
- Defended national auto auction client in eight-figure fraud and conversion claim in plaintiff-friendly jurisdiction, achieving favorable pre-trial settlement.
- Represented financial software provider in Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) filed in “rocket docket” jurisdiction, fighting overbroad discovery and negotiating advantageous class settlement with injunctive relief only.
- Routinely advise clients on responses to complex state and federal regulatory inquiries and non-party subpoenas, including serving objections, negotiating scope, defending depositions, and coordinating document productions.
- Drafted many customer-facing forms, loan agreements, online terms, and privacy policies, developing substantive expertise in UCC, privacy, usury, licensing, judgment collection, and consumer protection areas.
- Advised multiple automotive clients on potential anti-competition claims against leading industry technology providers.
- Defended a nationwide customer research management provider in arbitration regarding a software dispute.
- Represented an automotive wholesale inventory lender in a complex, putative class action regarding alleged interest practices.
- Achieved a favorable settlement for an international chemical compounder in a trade secrets matter related to a proprietary chemical recycling process.
- Rewrote a suite of customer purchase agreements and policies for an international automotive remarketer.
- Counseled and defended a professional partnership on a recurring basis in operational and employment claims.
- Advised on and responded to various claims against clients for alleged banning, blacklisting and refusal to deal practices under federal and state antitrust and anti-competition rules.

- Regularly advise automotive industry clients on the potential expansion of their service offerings.
