

Attorney Haley Moody Discusses Talc Trends at Midwest Asbestos Litigation Conference

Posted in Event on September 18, 2021

Miller & Martin Litigation attorney Haley Moody will be a panelist at the HarrisMartin Midwest Asbestos Litigation Conference on September 21 in St. Louis where she will provide thought leadership related to talc trends in asbestos cases. Serving as national counsel to healthcare consumer product manufacturers in the Life Sciences industry, Ms. Moody has significant experience managing hundreds of ongoing product liability defense cases involving personal injury claims related to products containing talc. She is responsible for coordinating with local counsel nationwide and managing all aspects of the litigation process, from overseeing e-discovery efforts, to taking and defending depositions, to directing and preparing motions and filings. Conference attendees may earn up to 8 hours of CLE depending on their state.

Click here for more information regarding the HarrisMartin Midwest Asbestos Litigation Conference.