Miller & Martin Attorneys Present at TVPPA 2022 Legal Conference

Posted in Event on January 28, 2022

Three Miller & Martin attorneys will present at the Tennessee Valley Public Power Association's 2022 Legal Conference to be held in Franklin, Tennessee on February 3-4, 2022.

On February 3, Mark Smith and Larry Cash will serve on a morning panel titled "What's New in the Valley" and Stacie Caraway will serve as a panelist for the afternoon session titled "Employment Law Considerations for Local Power Companies and Counsel – New Strategies in Today's Workplace."

The TVPPA Legal Conference is the premier legal meeting for attorneys, general managers, utility board members and other key staff from the Tennessee Valley electric systems. For system managers, the conference provides perspective on current legal issues impacting daily operations. For attorneys, the conference provides updates on key matters and challenges and a connection with other utility legal experts. The conference is expected to offer 9.0 hours of general CLE credit and 3.0 hours dual credit upon approval.
