

What Happens In-House Doesn't Always Stay In-House – An Interactive Panel Discussion on Attorney-Client Privilege for Corporate Counsel

Posted in Event on July 22, 2022

Join Miller & Martin and the Tennessee Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel for a complimentary reception and program for corporate counsel. The presentation will feature a practical discussion on attorney-client privilege for in-house counsel.

RSVP below or via the ACC website.

Event Details

Date: Tuesday, November 1, 2022

Location: Miller & Martin 12th Floor Conference Center, 832 Georgia Avenue, Volunteer Building, Chattanooga, TN 37402

Time: 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm EST

- 5:00 pm – 5:30 pm – Networking Reception & Opening Remarks by Chairman Scott Parrish
- 5:30 pm – 6:30 pm – CLE program featuring panelists from Miller & Martin, the Department of Justice and U.S. Xpress
- 6:30 pm – 7:00 pm – Closing Networking Reception

Panelists:

- Jessica Malloy-Thorpe | Litigation Attorney – Miller & Martin
- Russ Swafford | Assistant U.S. Attorney (Criminal Division) – Department of Justice, U.S. Attorney's Office Eastern District of Tennessee
- Megan Welton | Sr. Counsel, Legal Affairs – U.S. Xpress
- Chuck Lee | Litigation Attorney – Miller & Martin (Moderator)

Program Overview: They say, "what happens in Vegas, stays in Vegas." But what happens in-house doesn't always stay in-house, making the protection of attorney-client privilege a critical issue for corporate counsel. Our interactive panel featuring the unique perspectives of two former law clerks for federal judges and a current in-house attorney will discuss the best methods for protecting the privilege of in-house corporate counsel communications and work product. The program will provide an overview of attorney-client privilege, practical tips and common challenges for preserving privilege in various corporate situations and examples of local cases with attorney-client privilege issues.

RSVP Below

