

Haley Moody Speaks at TBA's Mastering the Art of Intermediate and Advanced Discovery 2018 CLE

Posted in Event on July 11, 2023

Litigation attorney Haley Moody is among the panelists at Tennessee Bar Association's "Mastering the Art of Intermediate and Advanced Discovery 2018" CLE program April 20, 2018, in Knoxville, Tennessee. This CLE is designed to help lawyers avoid losing a case in the discovery phase by addressing intermediate and advanced discovery techniques and topics including matters of ediscovery. The panelists are experienced litigators who will discuss key components of the discovery process in the context of family law, general civil, and criminal matters and its effective use at trial.

Visit the TBA website for event information and registration for the Mastering the Art of Intermediate and Advanced Discovery 2018 CLE program.