Miller & Martin Attorney Co-Presents with Wheels LLC Legal Counsel on Mitigating Automotive Disputes at 2025 Auto Intel Summit

Posted in Event on March 3, 2025

Miller & Martin Litigation Member and Automotive Practice Chair Jason McCarter co-presents along with Jacob Loken, Wheels, LLC legal counsel, at the Auto Intel Summit held April 8-10, 2025 in Cary, North Carolina in connection with the National Remarketing Conference's Spring Summit. Their session titled "Collision Course: Mitigating Automotive Disputes" on April 9 will cover commercial dispute trends in the auto industry – ways to try to prevent disputes and to better weather those storms when they arise. The attorneys will address contracting tips, litigation strategy, privileges, forum issues, and other pre-lawsuit maneuvers, with a focus on vehicle-specific considerations.

Attendees will leave this workshop better prepared to avoid disputes and to navigate those inevitable bumps in the road.

To register or learn more about the 2025 Auto Intel Summitt and National Remarketing Conference's Summit, click here.

