

Ryan Kurtz Represents Grupporeco at Public Event Announcing New Investment Project

Posted in News on September 15, 2021

Miller & Martin attorney Ryan Kurtz represented Grupporeco at the public announcement of the company's new investment project in Kinston, Lenoir County, North Carolina. Grupporeco is a global manufacturer of household appliance components headquartered in Costa Masnaga (Lecco), Italy near Lake Como. This project will create 110 new jobs and include a $28 million investment to build a manufacturing facility in Lenoir County. In his remarks, Mr. Kurtz provided a presentation of the company and the project before introducing the company CEO and President, Mr. Vincenzo Locatelli. This facility will be Grupporeco's first manufacturing facility in North America. Attendees and speakers at the event included the NC Commerce Secretary Mabelle Baker Sanders and NC Senator Jim Perry. Mr. Kurtz has worked with numerous European companies in selecting, establishing, and operating their businesses in the United States.

For additional information concerning the event and the project, please see NC Governor Roy Cooper's press release: European Manufacturer of Components for the Appliance Industry Selects Lenoir County for First North American Expansion | NC Gov. Cooper