

Miller & Martin Welcomes Attorney Jessica Wolinsky in Tennessee

Posted in News on October 9, 2021

Miller & Martin PLLC recently welcomed attorney Jessica Wolinsky as an associate in the firm's Chattanooga office where she concentrates her practice in employment law and litigation.

Prior to joining Miller & Martin, Ms. Wolinsky practiced at an employment law firm in Birmingham, Alabama. She is licensed in Tennessee and Alabama.

Ms. Wolinsky has experience advising and representing both employers and employees in labor & employment law matters. She has litigated claims and advised clients regarding the Family and Medical Leave Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, Americans with Disabilities Act, Fair Labor Standards Act, Families First Coronavirus Response Act, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, False Claims Act and State Contract Law. She also has experience handling claims following EEOC, EEO and OSHA processes.

She holds a J.D. from Samford University Cumberland School of Law and a B.S. in Political Science, with minors in Economics and Public Relations, from Berry College.

Ms. Wolinsky is a member of Miller & Martin's Women's Network, a network of attorneys within the firm focused on initiatives that support and elevate women in the legal profession and the communities they serve.
