Silicon Ranch General Counsel Featured in Vanguard Magazine

Posted in News on October 11, 2021

Miller & Martin congratulates Ricky Johnson, General Counsel of Silicon Ranch, one of the nation's largest independent solar power producers, on being recognized in Vanguard magazine. The linked article, subtitled "Solar GC deals in sustainable community involvement," highlights Ricky's accomplishments and his understanding that sustainability takes long-term commitment and partnership. Ricky ensures "the company and its vendors are aligned with each other and are positioned to serve the communities for the long haul." Tom Harrold, a Senior Member of Miller & Martin, has led the relationship with Silicon Ranch and is excited that Ricky's accomplishments are being recognized.

For more information and to read the article, please click here.