

Attorney Zac Greene Describes Career Journey in Hamilton County Herald Feature

Posted in News on May 23, 2022

Miller & Martin litigation attorney Zac Greene was featured in the May 13, 2022 issue of the Hamilton County Herald. In the article titled "From Runner to Partner: Greene's Journey with Miller & Martin," Mr. Greene describes his career journey and practice focus. A Chattanooga native, Mr. Greene first joined the firm's Chattanooga office as a runner while a college student and interned for two summers before eventually joining the firm in 2005 as an associate attorney. Today, Mr. Greene, as a partner in the firm's litigation department, represents individual and corporate clients in business disputes and white collar criminal matters. He also serves as a member of the firm's policy committee.

Click here to read the full attorney profile, "From Runner to Partner: Greene's Journey with Miller & Martin," in the Hamilton County Herald.