

Hamilton County Herald Features Miller & Martin Attorney Meredith Lee and Alum Allen Corey in Father-Daughter Story

Posted in News on October 22, 2022

Miller & Martin litigation attorney Meredith Lee and her father Allen Corey, who also practiced as a corporate attorney at the law firm until 1997 before becoming a restaurateur and CEO of SquareOne Holdings, were featured in the October 21, 2022 issue of the Hamilton County Herald.

In the article titled “There Was Always Something to Debate:’ Lee Trained Well at Family Table,” the father-daughter duo described how practicing law became a family affair with Ms. Lee following in her father’s footsteps to become a lawyer but creating a name for herself as a talented litigator practicing at the same firm her father once also called home.

Click here to read the full attorney profile, “There Was Always Something to Debate:’ Lee Trained Well at Family Table,” in the Hamilton County Herald.

(Pictured: SquareOne founder and former Miller & Martin attorney Allen Corey with his daughter, Meredith Lee, a litigator and member of the firm. — Photo by David Laprad | Hamilton County Herald)