Employment Attorney Scott Simmons Featured in Hamilton County Herald

Posted in News on April 28, 2023

Miller & Martin labor and employment attorney Scott Simmons was featured in the April 28, 2023 issue of the Hamilton County Herald. In the article titled "An Attorney, Pastor, Father with No Time to 'Waste': Simmons' Tenet Guides His Life, Family, Practice," Scott Simmons explains how he strives to live his life intentionally and purposefully in all aspects including his career path from lawyer to pastor to businessman, as well as being a family man, youth coach and trusted client counselor.

Mr. Simmons, who was recently elected to firm membership, focuses his practice on employment litigation and preventative counseling in the firm's Labor and Employment practice. Scott regularly counsels clients on a wide range of employment-related topics, including wage-and-hour compliance, hiring, termination, and creation and modification of general personnel policies. He also has significant experience defending a wide variety of employment-related lawsuits in front of a myriad of employment-related forums, including state and federal courts in multiple states, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, similar state agencies, and the National Labor Relations Board.

Click here to read the full attorney profile, "An Attorney, Pastor, Father with No Time to 'Waste': Simmons' Tenet Guides His Life, Family, Practice," in the Hamilton County Herald.