Practical Advice for Family Business Succession Article Featured in Edge Magazine

Posted in News on November 2, 2023

Miller & Martin corporate attorney Hugh Sharber recently authored, along with contributions from corporate associate Michael Brown, an article titled “Practical Advice for Family Business Succession” for the November 2023 issue of EDGE Magazine. A companion article was also published online by the Chattanooga Times Free Press on Nov. 1, 2023. The article offers practical ways to reduce the anxiety in family business succession and to help ensure a smooth business transition when handing the reigns to a family member.

Hugh Sharber is a member with Miller & Martin’s Chattanooga office with more than 35 years of experience practicing corporate and business law, with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions, securities transactions and other general business and commercial matters. Mr. Sharber counsels business owners, boards and senior management on legal aspects of transactions, management and key personnel transitions, as well as strategic and financing alternatives, among other things.
