

Attorney Brent Howard Joins Miller & Martin as Trusts, Estates and Wealth Management Member

Posted in News on May 21, 2024

Miller & Martin PLLC welcomes attorney Brent Howard as a member of the firm practicing in the Trusts, Estates and Wealth Management Practice Group.

With a focus on complex estate planning and administration, Howard's practice includes plans with challenging family structures, business succession needs, international aspects, and transfer tax considerations. He advises clients on matters involving estate planning, estate administration, tax-exempt entities, transfer tax, business succession planning and cross-border planning and administration.

"I decided to join Miller & Martin for a number of reasons, including their more robust platform of client services," said Howard. "This will allow me to better serve my clients and continue to grow my practice."

Scott Parrish, Miller & Martin's Chairman, added: "The addition of Brent to our Trusts, Estates and Wealth Management Practice Group is another step in executing our plan for growth in this essential practice area. Miller & Martin is fortunate to add someone like Brent with his extensive experience and expertise that will serve our clients in both Tennessee and Georgia."

Before receiving his law degree, Howard was a control system technician, and he utilizes his processing skills to provide efficient legal services to his clients.

Howard earned both his law degree and undergraduate degree from Georgia State University. Howard is a licensed attorney in Tennessee and Georgia.
