

Attorney Haley Moody Selected Among Leadership Chattanooga Class of 2024-2025

Posted in News on June 17, 2024

The Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce has announced Miller & Martin Attorney Haley Moody among the Class of 2024-2025 for Leadership Chattanooga. Established in 1984, Leadership Chattanooga is the premier leadership-development and civic-engagement program for greater Chattanooga professionals – promoting excellence through experiential learning opportunities, community service projects, and exclusive access to local and state leaders.

Beginning in August 2024 and adjourning with a graduation event in May 2025, Leadership Chattanooga participants will meet once a month for daylong sessions – advancing their leadership development, gaining insights into community challenges and brainstorming ways to contribute to the region's growth and success.

Haley Moody is a commercial litigation attorney representing large and small companies, as well as individuals, in federal and state courts. She guides clients through complex business disputes, involving breach of contract claims, negligence, misrepresentation, and fraud, and she enjoys counseling clients toward practical solutions while keeping their business needs in mind. Haley also defends clients involved in product liability and personal injury litigation, including serving as national coordinating counsel for a consumer healthcare products company defending hundreds of ongoing product liability cases nationwide. She has experience in a variety of industries, ranging from life sciences and manufacturing to construction and insurance. Since 2022, she has made The Best Lawyers in America: Ones to Watch list for her practice in the areas of commercial litigation, mass tort litigation/class actions defense and product liability litigation defense.

She is a member of Miller & Martin's Women's Network and is also involved with the American Inns of Court – Justices Ray L. Brock Jr. and Robert E. Cooper Chapter; Associated General Contractors of East Tennessee; Chattanooga Bar Association; Tennessee Bar Association; and the Defense Research Institute. Ms. Moody joined Miller & Martin in 2016 and was elected to firm membership at the partner level in 2024.
