

Miller & Martin Attorney Rachael Ruiz Promoted to Member

Posted in News on January 15, 2025

Miller & Martin PLLC is pleased to announce the election and promotion of attorney Rachael Ruiz to membership in the law firm effective January 2025.

“The firm is proud to promote Rachael to membership in recognition of her hard work and dedication to client service,” said Firm Chairman Scott Parrish. “She has displayed all the qualities we look for in a young member and we believe she has an extremely bright future in our commercial practice”.

Ms. Ruiz is a commercial attorney in the firm’s Chattanooga office focused on real estate law and also has experience with matters involving environmental law and nonprofit governance. She assists real estate developers, companies and nonprofit groups with various commercial matters, including, leasing transactions, closing financing and managing contracts involving retail, office and industrial properties.

Ms. Ruiz graduated from Tulane University where she obtained a B.A. in Environmental Policy and International Relations. Following two years of service in the Peace Corps in Nicaragua, she received her J.D. from Tulane University Law School in 2016 and was the recipient of the C.J. Morrow Scholars Scholarship Award. While in law school, she served as the Senior Articles Editor of the Tulane Environmental Law Journal, a member of the Tulane Environmental Law Society and the International Law Society, and as the Logistics Chair for the 20th Annual Law Summit on Environmental Law and Policy.
