

Miller & Martin Attorney Pharan Evans Appointed to the Board of Directors for Women in Technology

Posted in News on February 8, 2025

Miller & Martin is pleased to announce that Pharan Evans has been appointed to the Board of Directors for Women in Technology (WIT).

Pharan advises clients on a variety of issues relating to intellectual property, including strategic domestic and international intellectual property portfolio development, preparation and prosecution of patent and trademark applications, and intellectual property enforcement and litigation strategy. She has represented clients of all sizes from small startups to universities to private and public organizations. She has experience with a variety of technical areas including mechanical, electrical, chemical and computer technologies.

Before rejoining Miller & Martin as Of Counsel, Pharan served as General Counsel for an international consumer products manufacturer in which she advised corporate leadership regarding a variety of corporate and intellectual property matters, including a multi-million-dollar acquisition by a public company.

Founded in 1992, Women in Technology \(WIT\) empowers girls and women at every stage of their technology careers – from the classroom to the boardroom. WIT utilizes its programs, connections, volunteer opportunities and events to enable the development of the WIT community through recognition, thought leadership and foundation efforts. WIT is driven to help women and girls write their own stories of success throughout the full lifecycle of their careers and continued evolution as technology leaders in Georgia. Miller & Martin is a proud sponsor of WIT.

To read more, please click here.