

Miller & Martin Attorney Joe DeLisle Featured in Recent Global Atlanta Article

Posted in News on March 26, 2025

As part of a partnership with Global Atlanta, Miller & Martin attorney Joe DeLisle was interviewed on the firm's relationship with the World Law Group. The World Law Group is an invitation-only network of law firms around the world that operate independently but work collaboratively to help businesses navigate complex matters. Miller & Martin's involvement in the World Law Group allows the firm to serve its clients globally without needing to set up offices or have the overhead and complexities that come with it.

"Having 'best friend' law partners around the world is a crucial advantage for companies doing business internationally" says DeLisle.

For more information on Joe DeLisle's interview and the relationship between Miller & Martin and the World Law Group, please visit: Miller and Martin Offers Seamless Global Legal Service through World Law Group – Global Atlanta