PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation | Business Litigation | Appellate

Jade Flack is a litigation attorney in Miller & Martin's Atlanta office. She assists clients with business disputes and other civil litigation matters, drawing on experience in legal research, persuasive writing and civil and appellate procedure.

While earning her law degree, Jade served as a judicial extern to Chief Justice Nels S.D. Peterson of the Supreme Court of Georgia, Judge William "Bill" Hamrick III of the Georgia State-wide Business Court and Presiding Judge Christopher McFadden of the Georgia Court of Appeals. Through these roles, she researched substantive and procedural issues, drafted memoranda, and observed complex business litigation and appellate proceedings.

Jade previously worked as a summer associate with Miller & Martin, where she supported matters involving contract disputes, appellate procedure, disability-access compliance and trademark proceedings. She drafted briefs, pleadings, discovery responses, research memoranda, demand letters and settlement documents. She also served as a legal assistant to a process server and private investigator.

Jade earned her J.D. with honors from Georgia State University College of Law, where she served on the Georgia State Law Review, was president of the Law and Philosophy Forum and vice president of academic affairs for the Student Bar Association. She also was a pupil in the Bleckley Inn of Court and received a CALI Award in Wills, Trusts and Estates. Her scholarship includes co-authoring "SB 244 – Criminal Procedure," published in the Georgia State University Law Review.
