

Automotive Attorneys Present on Wholesale Vehicle Disclosures at 2026 Used Car Week Conference

Posted in Event on October 12, 2026

Miller & Martin Automotive Chair Jason McCarter, along with General Counsel Starling Hendriks of Auto Auction Holdings, will co-present the breakout session “Truth in the Fast Lane: Wholesale Vehicle Disclosures” at the 2026 Used Car Week Conference in San Diego, California on November 18, 2026 as part of the National Remarketing Conference track.

Artful condition disclosures are critical to maximizing inventory value but to also minimizing downstream risk. This session will cover legal considerations and best practices when it comes to remarketing units at auction and in other wholesale channels, including risk allocation among the parties, arbitration policies, UDAAP, and how to leverage condition reports, lights, announcements, and photos to protect yourself.

Used Car Week’s National Remarketing Conference Track provides a forum for analysis, education, and discussion, driving the wholesale auto industry forward. It focuses on business intelligence for vehicle consignors, brick-and-mortar auto auctions, online auctions, and technology and service providers.

To learn more about 2026 Used Car Week or register* for the conference, visit usedcarweek.biz.

Certified dealers may register at no cost at this link.*