Mattias Jannerbo, Chair of Miller & Martin's Corporate Department, focuses his practice on assisting real estate private equity funds, private equity funds, hedge funds and investment partnerships with respect to fund formations, capital raising efforts and subsequent investment activities. He also advises businesses raising capital by way of private securities offerings, venture capital financings and real estate joint ventures (representing equity investors as well as real estate developers). Mr. Jannerbo has assisted clients in a number of sectors including real estate investments, real estate development joint ventures, banking, furniture, restaurants, software applications, software services, gaming, social media, alternative fuels technology, environmental clean-up technology, and information technology.

Mr. Jannerbo also focuses on mergers and acquisitions and general business representation. Mr. Jannerbo advises clients with respect to mergers and acquisitions of small and middle-market companies locally and on a nationwide basis. He represents both buyers and sellers and works with financial buyer clients as well as clients who are buying or selling a business for the first time.

Mr. Jannerbo's practice also includes the general representation of businesses with respect to general business, contracts, tax matters and terms of use, privacy policies and similar agreements. He also negotiates software licensing and technology agreements for both technology companies and end users.
